

Testi del Syllabus

Resp. Did.

Matricola: null

Anno offerta:	2025/2026
Insegnamento:	2020001 - ENGLISH LANGUAGE - LEVEL B2
Corso di studio:	D720 - FOUNDATION COURSE IN ENGINEERING AND SCIENCE
Anno regolamento:	2025
CFU:	6
Settore:	NN
Anno corso:	1
Periodo:	Ciclo Annuale Unico

Testi in italiano

Lingua insegnamento	English
Contenuti	The B2+ course will focus on consolidating and mastering complex linguistic structures while expanding on academic and professional communication skills. 1. Grammar & Advanced Usage Review and Consolidation: A brief review of all tenses, focusing on nuanced use in different contexts (e.g., using the future perfect continuous to speculate about future actions). Complex and Extended Noun Phrases: Mastering the construction and use of sophisticated noun phrases to pack more information into a single subject or object. This includes using multiple adjectives, relative clauses, and prepositional phrases (e.g., the increasingly complex and interconnected global financial system). Modal Verbs: Mastering the use of modal verbs for a range of functions, including expressing subtle shades of meaning (e.g., should have, could have, might have). Conditionals and Subjunctive Mood: Advanced conditional structures, including mixed conditionals and the use of the subjunctive mood in formal and academic writing (e.g., I suggest that he be given...). Discourse Markers and Cohesion: Using a wide range of connectors and rhetorical devices to create highly cohesive and complex arguments in both written and spoken form (e.g., in light of, to this end, in tandem with). Complex Sentences: Formation and control of complex sentences with multiple subordinate clauses to express intricate ideas. Inversion and Emphasis: Using advanced grammatical structures for rhetorical effect and emphasis, particularly in formal texts (e.g., Not only is it important..., Rarely do we see...). 2. Lexis & Idiomatic Language Vocabulary Expansion: Developing a sophisticated and diverse vocabulary across a broad range of topics, including academic subjects, socio-political issues, and business. Collocations and Phrasal Verbs: Moving beyond common combinations to master advanced collocations and multi-word verbs that are specific to formal and academic contexts. Idioms and Figurative Language: Recognizing and using a wider array of idiomatic expressions, similes, and metaphors to add color and authenticity to spoken and written language.

	Register and Style: A detailed focus on understanding and using the appropriate register for different situations (e.g., formal, informal, academic, colloquial). 3. Communicative & Academic Skills Speaking: Participating in complex discussions and debates with a high degree of fluency and spontaneity. Giving well-structured presentations on complex topics, expressing and defending viewpoints, and handling counter-arguments effectively. Listening: Understanding extended speech, even when it is not well-structured, and comprehending implicit meanings, attitudes, and opinions in a variety of contexts, including lectures and documentaries. Reading: Understanding and critiquing long, complex, and abstract texts, including academic papers, reports, and opinion pieces. Recognizing rhetorical techniques and the author's purpose. Writing: Producing clear, well-structured, and detailed texts on complex subjects. This includes writing academic essays, research reports, summaries, and formal correspondence. Emphasis is placed on controlled use of organizational patterns, connectors, and cohesive devices
Testi di riferimento	To be defined
Obiettivi formativi	The course aims to build on students' foundational B2 skills, moving them toward a highly proficient and independent use of English (Advanced English B2+ Proficiency). The primary goal is to foster greater fluency, accuracy, and rhetorical control in a wide range of sophisticated subjects, preparing students for the demands of university-level study and specialized work environments
Prerequisiti	English B1
Metodi didattici	Lectures
Altre informazioni	--
Modalità di verifica dell'apprendimento	Exam Preparation and Assessment: The course will integrate practice tasks that directly relate to the written and oral exams. The final assessment will be expressed as a suitability judgment (Pass/Fail); numerical grading on a thirty-point scale is not applied

Obiettivi per lo sviluppo sostenibile

Codice	Descrizione
 Testi in inglese	English
	The B2+ course will focus on consolidating and mastering complex linguistic structures while expanding on academic and professional communication skills. 1. Grammar & Advanced Usage Review and Consolidation: A brief review of all tenses, focusing on nuanced use in different contexts (e.g., using the future perfect continuous to speculate about future actions).

Complex and Extended Noun Phrases: Mastering the construction and use of sophisticated noun phrases to pack more information into a single subject or object. This includes using multiple adjectives, relative clauses, and prepositional phrases (e.g., the increasingly complex and interconnected global financial system).

Modal Verbs: Mastering the use of modal verbs for a range of functions, including expressing subtle shades of meaning (e.g., should have, could have, might have).

Conditionals and Subjunctive Mood: Advanced conditional structures, including mixed conditionals and the use of the subjunctive mood in formal and academic writing (e.g., I suggest that he be given...).

Discourse Markers and Cohesion: Using a wide range of connectors and rhetorical devices to create highly cohesive and complex arguments in both written and spoken form (e.g., in light of, to this end, in tandem with).

Complex Sentences: Formation and control of complex sentences with multiple subordinate clauses to express intricate ideas.

Inversion and Emphasis: Using advanced grammatical structures for rhetorical effect and emphasis, particularly in formal texts (e.g., Not only is it important..., Rarely do we see...).

2. Lexis & Idiomatic Language

Vocabulary Expansion: Developing a sophisticated and diverse vocabulary across a broad range of topics, including academic subjects, socio-political issues, and business.

Collocations and Phrasal Verbs: Moving beyond common combinations to master advanced collocations and multi-word verbs that are specific to formal and academic contexts.

Idioms and Figurative Language: Recognizing and using a wider array of idiomatic expressions, similes, and metaphors to add color and authenticity to spoken and written language.

Register and Style: A detailed focus on understanding and using the appropriate register for different situations (e.g., formal, informal, academic, colloquial).

3. Communicative & Academic Skills

Speaking: Participating in complex discussions and debates with a high degree of fluency and spontaneity. Giving well-structured presentations on complex topics, expressing and defending viewpoints, and handling counter-arguments effectively.

Listening: Understanding extended speech, even when it is not well-structured, and comprehending implicit meanings, attitudes, and opinions in a variety of contexts, including lectures and documentaries.

Reading: Understanding and critiquing long, complex, and abstract texts, including academic papers, reports, and opinion pieces. Recognizing rhetorical techniques and the author's purpose.

Writing: Producing clear, well-structured, and detailed texts on complex subjects. This includes writing academic essays, research reports, summaries, and formal correspondence. Emphasis is placed on controlled use of organizational patterns, connectors, and cohesive devices

To be defined

The course aims to build on students' foundational B2 skills, moving them toward a highly proficient and independent use of English (Advanced English B2+ Proficiency). The primary goal is to foster greater fluency, accuracy, and rhetorical control in a wide range of sophisticated subjects, preparing students for the demands of university-level study and specialized work environments

English B1

	Lectures
	--
	Exam Preparation and Assessment: The course will integrate practice tasks that directly relate to the written and oral exams. The final assessment will be expressed as a suitability judgment (Pass/Fail); numerical grading on a thirty-point scale is not applied

Obiettivi per lo sviluppo sostenibile

Codice	Descrizione
--------	-------------